

broke students handbook

We would like to acknowledge that Concordia University is situated on the traditional and unceded territory of the Kanien'keha:ka (Mohawk), a place which has long served as a site of meeting and exchange amongst nations.

Hello my fellow artsy students! Spending the last 3 years wandering around our precious Concordia Fine Arts community, I am finally graduating and leaving this school with my diploma in hand and a heavy heart. Realizing that I spent these past 9 terms learning and gathering information on how to navigate this city/school/domain of interest with economy and intelligence, I figured it would be really cool to compact all this into one place to be accessible to anyone in need!

With the help of my team at FASA, you guys over at FASA medias, and my amazing designer Masheyla Anderson, I created the FASA Broke Student Handbook (also known as the BS Guide), ready to use, and open to modification over the years! Feel free to send your own tips and tricks to fasa.office@gmail.com on how to survive a year as a Fine Arts student at Concordia! In the mean time, enjoy your uni years as much as you can, and have an amazing time among the FASA community!

posters, FB, newsletters

Numerous events are organized at Concordia every week. Talks, panels, workshops, shows, vernissages, fairs, meals, parties,... (and so on!) either related to Fine Arts or others domains. Most of them are completely free and open to all students. 3 advices to not miss them:

Take a moment to « like » the pages that could interest you on facebook (pages of clubs, associations, places, galleries), you would have more chances to get aware of what's happening in your school. You can find a list of FASA's clubs here: <http://fasaconcordia.com/clubs-services/> . FASA tries to share as much as we can on our own Facebook page, so you could go take a look there once in a while too!

Read the newsletters! FASA, The CSU, the Faculty of Fine Arts, ISO, all those offices must send you a newsletter once in a while to update you on Concordia Community. It's a good source of info!

Check. The. POSTERS. At Concordia posters are everywhere, and believe it or not most of them contain amazing and useful information about what's happening at school in the moment. So many cool events! So many cool initiatives you could take a part of! :)

right to move/ la voie libre

Right to Move is a non-profit organization that was started in the spring of 1997 by a group who believed bicycles are a form of transportation that should be available to all, regardless of gender, age, wealth or ethnicity. In order to make bicycling a more accessible transportation option, they:

have a drop-in, do-it-yourself bicycle shop where members can fix their own bicycles with the help of volunteer mechanics

- hold hands-on workshops series on bicycle maintenance three times per year in english and French
- accept and collect bicycles destined for the landfill, fix them and donate them or sell them at low cost to those who would not otherwise be able to afford a bicycle

RTM is a membership-based organisation. A mere $20 per year gives you access to our drop-in shop.
